Tourism Victoria announces Dennis Turpin, Sales Manager, Business Events Victoria

Tourism Victoria is pleased to announce Dennis Turpin has joined the Business Events Victoria Team as Sales Manager, effective Dec. 1, 2016. Based out of Ottawa, Dennis will be responsible for driving meetings and convention business from key Eastern Canadian markets — Ottawa, Toronto, Montreal, and surrounding areas.

With more than 25 years in tourism and hospitality, Dennis has earned a solid reputation over his successful career within the industry. His previous experience includes serving as Association Manager with the Shaw Centre in Ottawa, Account Manager of Royal Physicians and Surgeons of Canada, National Account Director with Delta Hotels, and Business Development Manager with American Express Canada.

Raised in the Montreal area, Dennis built a strong network of associates in his hometown before relocating to Ottawa. Having experience with both corporate and association clients, he brings a unique understanding of their specific needs.

A long-time CSAE member, Dennis continues to be committed to working with Canadian associations, especially in the Ottawa-Gatineau region where he currently sits as a board member and is co-chair of the Tête-à-Tête Conference.
